Wedgworth Fights For Growing Land

Florida Sugar Cane League President George Wedgworth lashed out Tuesday against hunters who chase and kill deer from half-tracks and airplanes who are opposing development of the Everglades Agriculture area.

The area under question is a six square mile tract of the Everglades Agriculture Area, partly owned by private agricultural interests and partly leased from the state in good faith for agricultural development.

Wedgworth appeared before Gov. Reubin Askew and the State Cabinet in a two-hour confrontation with hunters and "conservationists" who are trying to maintain the area as a wetlands-wildlife preserve.

No decision was reached by Askew and the cabinet Tuesday and the area's status was maintained until a "major policy decision" can be reached, possibly by action of the state legislature.

There was some discussion as to whether the state should swap other land to be developed for the land in the six mile parcel.

Another possibility was that the state might declare the area environmentally endangered and buy it outright.

Wedgworth pointedly referred to opponents of the development as being interested in "hunting activities, rather than sportsman or conservation purposes."

"The real story," he said, "as to the activities of these groups and individuals should receive public attention."

"They travel under the disguise of being conservationists, sportsmen, environmentalists and ecologists, to promote their own self-interests in the protection of an activity that is diametrically opposite."

"Gentlemen," he said, "the wholesale slaughter of wildlife from mechanical apparatuses, called half-tracks and airplanes, is not sporting nor in the interest of conservation. To physically exhaust a deer by hot pursuit in this motorized equipment and either kill by shooting or throat cutting is not humane and should be exposed and stopped."

Wedgworth told the cabinet the current attacks on the development and agricultural use of both private and public land within the Everglades Agriculture Area of South Florida are so alarming the growers felt they needed to defend their right to produce food.

He said he felt the growers, in defending themselves, also felt the need to expose those who would take away from us these rights."

Wedgworth said the development of the Everglades Agriculture Area has been consistent with both federal and state policy for more than 50 years.

He also pointed out agriculture provided the economic justification for the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District for the Federal government and reminded the cabinet the counties in the area have zoned the entire area for agricultural purposes.

"Through out the years," Wedgworth said, "both private and public lands have been purchased or leased for agricultural purposes in the area in concern with this public policy."

He said most of the land has already been developed and is currently in production but said there still remains some undeveloped public and private land.

Wedgworth said private owners have continued to pay taxes on the undeveloped land, "looking forward to the day when economics would allow for full utilization."

"The state should also continue to promote the economic development of their lands as soon as possible," he said, "because of the deterioration of the area under undeveloped conditions due to oxidation and uncontrolled wild fires."

Wedgworth contended the continued development of the Everglades Agriculture Area is in the public interest not only because it fulfills the economic justification of the project, but will provide taxes, jobs and essential foods.

He told Gov. Askew and the cabinet the sugar industry will contribute a quarter of a billion dollars in gross value of sugar and molasses produced in the season now ending.

"Present and predicted shortages of sugar increase the importance of expanded production of this vital food," he said.

"Any attempt to adversely affect present and future expansion by restricting the use of designated agricultural land is of great concern to our industry."

Despite Wedgworth's pleas, Gov. Askew and the cabinet decided it should maintain the status quo on the six square miles of land under discussion and hold off development for the present.

Although one conservationist said farming in the area is killing off the wildlife, Wedgworth said the ranches and fields adjacent to the conservation areas now developed around with deer at certain times of the year.

"We submit," he said, "that it could possibly be that they are occupying the onslaught of the airboat and half-tracks. If the rest of the land in the agriculture area is developed, these type hunters with these machines will be excluded because the half-track and airboat will not negotiate the levees and canals."

"Could this be what this matter is all about?"

He said he felt the growers, in defending themselves, also felt the need to expose those who would take away from us these rights."

Wedgworth said the development of the Everglades Agriculture Area has been consistent with both federal and state policy for more than 50 years.

A Belle Glade boy was killed in a fair condition in Glades General Hospital Tuesday after being pinned in his car about an hour following an accident Monday afternoon. Police officers and city firemen had to use a winch and cable mounted on a wrecker to pull open the sedan's door before Robert Kelly Clark, 16, of 109 N.E. First St. could be released from the car. Clark was crossing the Second Street Bridge when he was struck by a semi-truck driven by C.W. De Groot, 55, of Paula Gorda Nether De Groot near his passenger, Miss Roxanne Hylle, 21, of St. Paul, Minn., were injured. Sgt. William King said both drivers were charged with running the red light at the bridge and West Canal Street North.

Air Proposal Made Again

Mosquito Control Decision Put Off

The South Bay City Commission decided Tuesday but declined to act on a proposal to control mosquitoes within the city by aerial spraying.

For the second consecutive year, Ag Air President Howard Barker proposed the city take to the air to bombard the bugs and the commission said they would consider the proposal and would probably let him know something in about a month.

Barker told the commission he thought the use of aerial applications has proven satisfactory in Belle Glade and Clewiston and said those cities have both recently signed two-year contracts with him after experimenting with his service for a year each.

He said he wouldn't be able to submit a bid as low as his two-year contract with Belle Glade because his price of 25 cents per acre per application was submitted before the recent drastic increase in the price of gasoline.

One proposal the commission said to cut costs would be that Barker spray the South Bay area at the same time he sprayed Belle Glade.

Barker said that would cut his costs because it would cost him almost as much to spray South Bay alone as South Bay and Belle Glade together, since he has to tear down and clean the system every time he uses it.

In other action the commission:

- Directed city building inspection Max Harvill to salvage the water line which must be covered by the four-laning of SR80 north of town.
- The line runs from the city limits to the intersection of SR80 and SR15 and at one time connected the sewer supply systems of South Bay and Belle Glade.

Commissioner Woodrow "Woody" O'Neal said the line could be used to supply water to fire hydrants needed in the new Woodman subdivision.

Moved to donate $400 to the Glades branch of the Palm Beach County Community Mental Health Center at the request of Mrs. Mary Waters.

On the other hand, O'Neal said the commission should check into the finances of Meals on Wheels before making more contributions towards that agency since he and others have heard the state is helping fund the program.

Mayor Verma Cox said the city hasn't made out a check to Meals on Wheels for the past two months.

Wallace said Langer will be in and out of his office all day Tuesday and will be traveling around the Belle Glade area signing autographs and meeting prospective Army recruits.

Wallace said Langer will also be conducting a "sports clinic" at Glades Central High School at some point during the day.

Langer's claim to fame on the 1973 World (champion) Dolphin team was that he started every game and played on every offensive pass during the season.

Federal $ For 80-27?

Inclusion of the four-laning projects for SR80 and U.S. 27 in the Federal Highway Administration priority primary program would mean "not much right now" according to one state official.

Florida Department of Transportation spokesman Terry Graham said Florida's share of the program would be so small and the priorities SR80 and US27 are so low, they may not be helped by the national "junior Interstate" building program.

The two are included in the list of 16 projects totaling 209.6 miles of four-laning recommended last week for inclusion in the federal funding program.

The problem is, according to Miss Graham, that although the 1973 Federal Highway Act has already provided for the state to receive $2.78 million in the current fiscal year, $5.57 million in the 1974-75 year and $8.36 million in the 1975-76 year, no authorization has come for any state to spend any of the money.

Besides, the three year total for Florida amounts to little more than $16 million and DOT officials estimate Florida's primary road funds under the program would total more than $43.2 million.

Since the Congressionally appropriated funds for the three year period amount to no more than $600 million, and no road having been received yet on how any of the funds can be spent, little help is expected for the two projects.

The DOT ranked the SR80 project number four on the list with US27 following at distant 12th and Miss Graham said she thought that, once authorization is given, the state will probably spend the money on the top few projects rather than spread it thin.

"If you lose a mile or two here and a mile or two there," he said, "that's exactly what you've got."

To qualify for the program, a road must bear heavy traffic loads and be connected directly to the Interstate system.

Chosen by state transportation departments in consultation with local officials, the priority primary highways must be ranked based on safety, traffic congestion, traffic volume, system integration, service to population center, industries and other traffic generators and usage by trucks and buses.

Postmaster Resigns In Belle Glade

Belle Glade Postmaster Ralph K. Causseaux will officially step down from his position Friday and a Palm Beach Gardens man will be sworn in as Officer in Charge.

West Palm Beach Postmaster Ronald Pitts confirmed the personnel change, saying Kenneth Turner, a 25 year veteran of the U.S. Postal Service, will take over Causseaux's duties.

Causseaux took over the position of Officer in Charge of the Belle Glade Post Office following the retirement of former Postmaster R.H. Mackey who retired June 15, 1973 and was later named Postmaster.

Causseaux has been in U.S. Postal Service more than 15 years, all of it in the Belle Glade office. He has his way through the ranks to the position of superintendent of mail before taking over the position in 1962. He said he doesn't expect to move to Belle Glade because he doesn't expect to be named the city's permanent postmaster.

"I'm going to try to improve the service," Turner said, "and if anybody wants to see me, I'm always available."

Grady's Chances Up?

Dr. John Grady's campaign for the U.S. Senate seat now occupied by Sen. Ed Gurney could receive a large boost from a bill under consideration by the state legislature.

State American Party Chairman Don Mathers, who is managing Grady's campaign said Wednesday the House Elections Committee was considering that day a bill which would decrease the number of signatures required for a minority party to get on the ballot.

The present requirement is that the minority party gather 3 per cent or 105,000 signatures on a petition to have its candidates appear on the ballot during general elections.

Mathers said the "Fairness Bill" would reduce that requirement to 1 per cent or 35,000 signatures of the electorate.

Mathers said Grady now has "in the neighborhood of 10,000 signatures and if this bill goes through, we could be on the ballot in 30 days."

He said the bill was introduced in the state House of Representatives by Rep. Harvey Matthews (R-Orlando).

Miami Dolphin Star Will Appear Here

Miami Dolphins football team center Jim Langer will be in Belle Glade Tuesday to promote the Army according to local U.S. Army recruiter Billy Wallace.

Wallace said Langer will be in and out of his office all day Tuesday and will be traveling around the Belle Glade area signing autographs and meeting prospective Army recruits.

Wallace said Langer will also be conducting a "sports clinic" at Glades Central High School at some point during the day.

Langer's claim to fame on the 1973 World (champion) Dolphin team was that he started every game and played on every offensive pass during the season.

The 6 foot, 2 inch, 250 pound lineman needed just three times on 500 pass-blocking assignments according to Miami offensive line coach Monte Clark.

He signed his first pro contract with Cleveland in 1970 as a free agent and spent part of the 1970 training camp with the Browns before coming to Miami on waivers.

Boy, you gotta admit one thing: for a 15-month old, I've really gotten around since taking over the position of the Herald Lass.

Set copy, job shop work, sell the newspapers, sell advertising, proofreading...you name it and ol' Cindy's done it.

Just last week, we were in a rush putting out section B and Glenn told me to put the Home Front together and I'd never done anything like that before.

First of all, you've gotta find out what kind of news stories you have that fit onto the page. Then there's the problem of making all the stories fit and cutting out the ones that don't fit.

That's a job in itself because you've gotta figure out which stories are most important. Like the man said, one definition of news is that news is what the editor says it is.

Only trouble is, is that it isn't always so easy to decide which of two or three stories are most important...or to whom, much less trying to figure out what size to run the pictures.

And then there's always the headlines. Oh, wow, are there ever headlines! What size type? One or two decks? Do we want a kicker (that's the line of type above the main headline) or not?

And all that's not even mentioning making the copy fit in the box, or that the spelling's accurate oh and don't forget to put that outline under the picture.

Anyway, that's makeup and layout. Lesser news how many columns the words

Growers Seminar Planned

The assessment of property will be the subject of talks set for a sugar cane growers seminar at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the library conference room at the Agricultural Research and Education Center here.

County Agricultural Extension Agent John Cassey said the seminar will feature Hal Porter, the Palm Beach County assessor's office agricultural expert, who will speak on grower's responsibilities to the assessor.

The other speaker will be Palm Beach County Assessor David Reid, who will talk on the progress made over the past few years by his office.

John Takes Oath Of Office

Fred John (above left) became the newest member of the Palm Beach Broward Soil and Water Conservation District last week when Palm Beach County Commissioner E.W. "Bud"

Weaver administered the oath of office. John was elected to the board of supervisors for the district in a special election two weeks ago.

A Sweet Success

Glades sugar cane farmers can look forward to a sweet success this year despite a drop in total crop production.

The Florida Chamber of Commerce reported yesterday, in its Weekly Business Review, the Florida Chamber said unfavorable weather conditions earlier this year caused a drop in crop production totals for this season, just winding up.

U.S. Crop reporting services indicate the 1973-74 crop will be about 8.7 million tons, a drop of about 800,000 tons from the previous season.

At the same time, value per ton rose from $12.94 a year ago to about $16 a ton for this season.

"Florida farmers market close to one-third of the nation's total sugar cane sugar to rank second in the U.S. behind Hawaii. Palm Beach county produces nearly 75 per cent of the state's total with remaining production in Martin, Hendry and Glades counties," said Ronald S. Spencer, Jr., Executive Vice President of the Florida Chamber of Commerce.

Federal agricultural sources estimate the yield per acre to be 33 tons for the current crop year compared to 38.1 tons the previous year. However, the industry expects to harvest 265,400 acres in 1973-74 compared to 248,600 acres in 1972-73.

"Another source of raw sugar are the beet grown in several northern states. In fact, latest statistics show that beet sugar is used in more domestic production than sugar cane sugar," Spencer added.

The Review said sugar production is supplemented in the United States by large imports from the Philippines, the Dominican Republic and other countries.

HISTORIAS PARA NIÑOS

Aguaña, la reina equisimal

Voy a platicarles a mis queridos lectores algo acerca de la vida de ciertos niños que cogeremos a los llamados equisimales, y especialmente la historita referente a la pequeña Aguaña.

Veis aquel extraño promotorio que parece un coecor de ladridos o de adobe? Sera un coecor parado en medio de la nieve? No señores, es que parece un coecor es la casa en donde vive la pequeña Aguaña. La pequeña abertura que esta cerca del suelo es la puerta de entrada. Pero para entrar es preciso hacerlo casi a rastras. Otro pequeño agujero que se ve un poco mas arriba es la ventana. En lugar de vidrio tiene una como tela transparente que el papa de Aguaña arranca de las entrañas de la foca. Luego su mama estiro esa especie de tela de foca y lo colocó en la ventana para protegerse del frio y permitir la entrada de la luz.

Aquí vive nuestra amiga, no como los niños de climas calientes en medio de los arbustos y las flores sino muy lejos en los países frios entre el hielo y la nieve. Aguaña se viste de tal manera que a verla de lejos parece mas bien un osito pequeño. Su carita es redonda, lisa y graciosa.

Usa calcetines calientes y suaves. Su mama se lo hace de piques de pajaro, con el plumon para el lado de dentro, para que se guarde caliente. Tiene tambien su vestidito de piel de foca. Los equisimales cenan las focas y se alimentan con su carne y sus huesos, pero cuando o este trineo este terminado, los peritos cafe estarán ya bastantes grandes para tirar a el. El trineo y los peritos serán de Aguaña, porque ella es una princesa, hija de un gran jefe.

Fuera de la casa de Aguaña hay mucho frio, pero tanto que ninguno de ustedes ha visto jamás de invierno tan frio así. Pero dentro de la casita esta todo bien caliente. No es el sol, lo que calienta la casa. Es una clase de lampara que el papa alimenta con grasas de caballo marino. Tambien sobre esta lampara cocina la mama de nuestra amiga, aunque casi siempre se comen la carne cruda; la cortan en tiras largas y largas, se la van comiendo como si fuera una meloccha. No comen pan, ni tortillas, ni papas, ni macarrones, ni arroz, ni carne, ni nada de eso, porque

Workers Sought For Volunteer Action Center

They're looking for people of all kinds of people. The Volunteer Action Center of the Community Services Council of Palm Beach County is using National Volunteer Week, being observed April 21-27, to recruit more unpaid workers.

At least two women from Belle Glade are part of the country-wide volunteer group which attempts to match people who have a little extra time with jobs where their skills can be put to use.

Who do they need? They need musicians, printers, tutors, basketball players, photographers, nurses, dentists, students, retirees, typists and housewives. "If you care," they say, "somebody needs you."

What kinds of jobs are open? They want people to provide financial and budget counseling to those who have requested such help to tutor disadvantaged and handicapped children, to host foreign students and to act as scout leaders.

They have jobs of just about every description. And who usually volunteers? Mrs. Mary Foster of 884 S.W. 10th St. and Ms. Dorothea Daniels of 672 S.W. Ninth St. are two. Mrs. Foster works with girl scouts and Ms. Daniels works with the Community Action Council.

But Mrs. Foster and Ms. Daniels are only two volunteers in a county-wide program. Other volunteers, because someone once helped me," according to VAC Director Mrs. Carol Whitfield. Mrs. Whitfield said there are slight lines of demarcation between VAC, Retired Senior Volunteers Program (RSVP) and the Community Services Council's Information and Referral component but all programs interrelate to some extent.

All three programs are unified by work for the United Way and Mrs. Whitfield said there are approximately 150 agencies, both governmental and private, in the county which have need of volunteers. "Who better helps people than people who have had problems themselves?" Mrs. Whitfield queried when asked how volunteers work out in agencies.

The observation of National Volunteer Week will be kicked off Sunday with a Volunteer Recognition Tea at 5 p.m. at Ambassadors International at 1111 South Flagler Drive in West Palm Beach.

Here Comes Peter Cottontail To Belle Glade

The Easter Bunny made a number of appearances in the Belle Glade area last week and wound up his yearly tour Easter Day before returning to his burrow for the year.

It was a loving old bunny who made his appearance last week at the West Area Exceptional Education Center at Gove Elementary (right), appearing to highlight an Easter program which included a film and goodies distributed by the wiley old hare himself.

The bunny wound up his Glades trip with a tour of Glades General Hospital Sunday where he visited Mrs. Marianne Cowart and her two daughters (below) before visiting Glades Correctional Institution to see the children there as they enjoyed an Easter egg hunt.

McCrory's manager Melvyn Kooper acted as the bunny's agent on Good Friday when he handed a giant Easter basket to little Larry Lynn Cardin II and his mother, Mrs. Karen Cardin of 1117 N.W. 16th St. Larry won the basket in a drawing held at the Glades Plaza store and Kooper said he received, "at least 50 calls Friday," from people who wanted to know who won the basket.

Services Held For T.M. Daniels, 81

Funeral services for Theodore Monroe Daniels, a civil engineer who designed many of the major pumping stations in the Glades, were held Monday morning at the Mixson Funeral Home Chapel.

Daniels, 81, died Sunday at his home at 208 N.W. 16th St. He was born in Waterloo, Iowa and is a longtime resident of Lake Harbor and Belle Glade.

He was retired but during the early years of the Glades' development, he surveyed the Miami Canal from the Lake to Miami, engineering and helped construct the pumping stations around Lake Okechobee and 20 Mile Bend and pumping station on US-7.

He operated several pumping stations after his retirement. Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Mary Daniels of Belle Glade; two sisters, Miss Josephine Daniels of Coral Gables and Mrs. Mable Bridden of Coral Gables; one grandson and two great grandchildren.

Community United Methodist Church of Belle Glade pastor, the Rev. Randall Parsons, officiated at the services.

Burial was at Woodlawn Park Cemetery in Miami. Pallbearers were Larry Royal, Charles Royal, Warren Brown, Gideon Brown, Jack Brown and John Brown. Mixson Funeral Home had charge of arrangements.

Benefit Rummage Sale Held

A local man with an advanced kidney disease will be the reason for a rummage sale being held from 7:30 to noon Saturday in the Cásarate parking lot.

The rummage sale will be held by the staff of Rosenwald Elementary School and the proceeds will go to the E.D. Nester family, who live at 125 NE Third St. North.

Nester has been unable to work since October and has been in the hospital in Miami for the past three weeks. He is expected to remain in the hospital for the next three weeks at least.

Luncheon Set

The Belle Glade Junior Women's Club will be sponsoring a Summer fashion show and luncheon on Saturday, May 18, at the Belle Glade Civic Center.

During the luncheon an auction will be held and several large items will be offered for bids. The event will feature fashions from the Haze Shop, with Mrs. Roy Hayes coordinating the fashion show.

by Donna Rath,
Librarian

Come one, come all, to the Belle Glade Municipal Library celebration of National Library Week. The celebration will last six whole days: April 22 through the 27th.

For all six of these days no fees on overdue books will be charged and lost cards can be replaced free of charge. Also in celebration of National Library Week, we have a large selection of new books.

In conjunction with National Library Week, Mrs. Ann Tyler's students will have an art show in the library's multi-purpose room. On Sunday, "In honor of National Library Week and to open the art show, there will be a tea from 3 to 5 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of the library. The public is cordially invited to attend."

National Library Week is a good time to get to know your library, and to get into the habit of using the library. So come and join our celebration. Because of preparations for the art show, there will not be a children's movie Saturday. We will have a movie again April 27.

Watson Attends Seminar

T.S. Watson of Watson Ford, Inc. in Belle Glade, has completed an Operations Planning seminar conducted by Ford's Atlanta Marketing Institute.

The course is one of a number offered by Ford Marketing Institutes to benefit Ford and Lincoln-Mercury customers by emphasizing after-purchase service and customer relations, according to Lester C. Brock, director of Ford's Atlanta Institute.

Subjects range from management and merchandising courses for dealers and their department managers to selling courses for salesmen. In addition, there are courses for selected Ford Motor Company personnel. Courses are developed from methods used by successful dealerships. Full-time, professional instructors conduct the classes. The institutes employ the latest personnel development techniques and equipment, and stress group participation in simulated selling or management situations. Ford Marketing Institutes are located in Atlanta, Dallas, New York, Chicago, San Francisco and Detroit. The first institute was opened in 1959.

District To Meet

Members of the Glades District of Gulf Stream Council, Boy Scouts, were requested this week to be at a district meeting at 7:30 p.m. tonight in Room 206 at Community United Methodist Church.

"The council and district calendars for 1975 will be discussed," District Executive Earl Hartman said. "We need to have the desires of all district volunteers represented at this meeting."

Hartman said the meeting is a "must" for institutional representatives as the voices of the units who represent the district committee. He said the discussion will include such things as campfires, the district meeting and roundtable schedule, training events for Cub Scouting and Scouting, district courts of honor and special activities.

Karen's Korner

By Karen Hansford

Last week I mentioned to someone I was going to the creek for the weekend. He grinned and said it would probably be in my next column. I thought, "Well, why not?" After all, camping is a hobby and this column is supposed to be about sports and hobbies, although I admit to getting off the track sometimes.

So here I am, a little for the better and a lot for the worse. Unfortunately, I caught something from the trip-and it sure wasn't fish.

I'm sure many people around here know where Fisheating Creek is, beside a small town called Palmdale. Palmdale is one of those places you go through where you shouldn't blink cuz you might miss it.

One of the good things about camping, there's never a dull moment. Not thirty minutes after I got there the guys threw me in the creek. Now that creek has really gone down lately because of the dry weather and it wasn't even waist high where we were, so you can imagine the sand I got in my jeans.

But here I was sitting calmly in a lawn chair reading a book when I heard my brother whisper something at my head and then he and Ralph Lopez started ambulating over in my direction. I jumped and ran for the woods. Unfortunately I ran around the car right into a dead end and they caught me. In another thirty seconds I was sitting in the creek, water gushing all over me. Of course, I wasn't the only one. My sister, Jeff and Ralph's wife followed me, though not voluntarily.

And what is camping without a few wild animals? We went walking Saturday night and met a couple of armadillos. Then when we were sleeping, or rather trying to, that same night a loud commotion woke us up. Some animal was running through the camp and Max (short for Maxine, the dog) was barking and chasing it. Next morning we found out it was a bobcat. And then there was the usual number of squirrels climbing in the trees.

We were lucky though, usually the raccoons sneak into camp at night and look around for something to get into. Wild animals weren't the only thing.

The strippers, rather strippers in this case, hit the creek around midnight. Two camps down from us were a bunch of guys who apparently decided to stir up some fun. They all stripped down and went skinny dipping and swinging on a rope out into the water. Some enterprising soul decided to get a spotlight and flash it on them, much to the amusement of the other campers.

Many of you who go camping will agree there's nothing as beautiful as an early morning sunrise in the woods. I love to get up early enough to watch the sun rise, but this time I missed it. In fact, at 9 o'clock I was still asleep until Harry shook the tent and bellowed, "You know what I do to anyone who isn't up before nine in the morning? I tear their tent down with them inside it." You can believe I got up because Harry is just the sort of guy who might try it.

Don't ever believe that saying "Lightning doesn't strike twice in the same place." The last two times we went camping it did, in the form of thunderstorms and a leaky tent. But this time it turned out great.

If you haven't been camping in quite a while, gather up your gear and go. And if you've never been, start now because you're really missing something.

The martial arts have become a family affair as young and old alike turn out for karate classes two nights a week and Saturdays at the Glades Central High School gymnasium. One of the youngest Glades residents to don the white belt of the student is Dee Dee Alford (above). To the left, instructors Earl Kentz (flying through the air) and Catalina Lopez demonstrate some of the moves. Kentz later demonstrated the use of Nun Chucks, two sticks connected by a rawhide thong used in the orient as a weapon.

Measuring Up

Robert Wadlow was the tallest known man. He reached the height of 8 feet 11.1 inches.

"Princess Pauline" of Holland was only 22.2" tall at

However large or small a person is, there's a ruler, tape measure, yard or metre stick made by Lufkin to measure him.

Tucker Gets Hole-In-One

Ray Tucker of Canal Point fired a hole-in-one Monday at the Belle Glade Municipal Golf Course. According to golf pro Jack Murphy.

Murphy said Tucker made the ace, his first, on the third hole, 160 yards from the tee, while playing with Blas Rodriguez, Willie Hand and Jerry McKechn.

Leading in Responsibility

Reverence

Everyone is familiar with the old song "School Days" and its reference to the "three R's." One can hardly dispute the importance of Reading, 'Rithmetic, and Respect, but what of the other "R's"? Responsibility, Respect, Reverence—who name a few. Reverence with regard to this great and wonderful land. "GATTIAGO" is a crime of so great a nation and support for its laws and for the rights and feelings of other citizens we all hold so dear. We must have basic requirements of all if we are to maintain the freedom we all hold so dear. With the end of School Days we will let down a little in the practice of Reading, 'Rithmetic, and Respect, but to let down in the practice of Responsibility is detrimental to the whole of society and the deterioration of our nation.

Rebels Quartet To Appear

The well-known Rebels Quartet will appear at 7:30 p.m. Friday at the Church of God of Belle Glade 301 S.E. Ave. E in a gospel singing performance according to Fishers of Men Fellowship Club member Dennis Deaton. Deaton said the Rebels Quartet have appeared at the local church several times in the past, coming to Belle Glade about this time last year.

Good Friday Service Called Best Ever

By Rev. Abe Castor

Christian history was made in Belle Glade on Good Friday night last week, in one of the most successful Good Friday Services ever held in the Glades area.

The sanctuary of Everglades Presbyterian Church, North Main St. at Ave. K, was filled to capacity with overflow seating in all aisles. Approximately 250 persons attended, representing 12 churches of the Belle Glade area.

The processional hymn, "There Is a Fountain Filled With Blood," was led by a processional of three choirs, the Youth Choir of Mt. Zion African Methodist Episcopal Church, followed by the adult choir and Boy's Choir of Everglades Presbyterian Church.

They were accompanied by Mrs. Robert Radman, organist, and Mrs. Willie Rountree, pianist.

Following the enthusiastic singing of "There Is Power in the Blood," the climax of the service was the dynamic sermon, "What the Cross Should Mean to Me," by the Rev. Mark O'Farrell, pastor of the Belle Glade Alliance Church.

Rev. O'Farrell emphasized that the cross means "substitution," that Christ died for our sins in our place; using the text, "He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree...." 1 Peter 2:24.

Mrs. Katherine Price, resident of the Glades for more than 40 years, and well-known for her benevolent work with "migrants and interracial ministry," said, "This was the most impressive, most inclusive, far-reaching Good Friday Service that I have attended in 20 years."

In her personal contact with many individuals of the participating congregations, she stated: "It is the solid consensus of opinion of people from the churches that this was the best Good Friday Service ever held in the Glades area."

Church Overflowed

The Community United Methodist Church climaxed the week of New Life Mission with an overflow attendance on Easter Sunday.

Attendance was good at all the sessions with Dr. George Foster serving as teacher-evangelist. Both the chancel and youth choirs and the men's chorus provided special music. The evening services concluded with a very special communion service on Maundy Thursday.

On Easter day baptismal services were performed for Craig Derek Oren, son of Paul and Marsha Oren, and William Bayford Blitch and Joseph Garrett Blitch, sons of Rayford and Bonnie Blitch.

Received into the church membership were Mrs. John Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. J.A. Feriera, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mays and Gwen Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Franklin, Mr. Earl Hartman, Mrs. Betty Hartman, Mrs. Kenneth Perkins, and Mrs. Helen McCormick.

The Parson Pontificates

I often look back on live and thank God that he didn't answer some of my prayers. I've almost decided that He knows more about what I need than I do. And how selfish some of my prayers have been! A Sunday School teacher was teaching the little children to pray, "Let us thank God for the nice rain we had Saturday," she said. "Yes," piped up little Tommy, "it spoiled my picnic!" How many good things we resent and reject because they spoil our picnic! Let's be more thankful to God in our praying, and less dictatorial in our demands upon Him. [See St. Matthew 6:8, 32]

Founders Day Plans Released

Belle Glade members of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority will help celebrate a nation-wide Founders Day at 7:30 p.m. April 29 at the municipal County Club, marking the 43rd anniversary of the club's founding.

Members of six chapters locally according to Activities Chairman Mrs. Warren Battle of Nu Kappa Chapter. The toastmistress for the evening is Mrs. J.D. Lee III.

Mrs. Frank Teets will present a special message from the sorority's president which she has received from the sorority's world headquarters in Kansas City, Mo. The theme for the year, "Stairway to Happiness," will be officially launched.

The organization was founded in Abilene, Kansas by Walter W. Ross and is a social, cultural and service organization for women with more than 250,000 members in 15,000 chapters organized in 24 countries.

The organization is non-political and non-sectarian and isn't connected with any school or college.

Chapters of five different degrees meet the growing needs of various age groups. Members are active in small Chapter groups and each Chapter adapts the plans for social, civic, and service and cultural activities to fit the interests of its own members.

When Beta Sigma Phi events or civic endeavors are larger than one Chapter can plan alone, all Chapters in a city or area combine their strength. There are State Conventions each year which any member may attend.

Internationally the Chapters have created three special funds: The International Loan Fund, through which members help one another; the International Endowment Fund, through which vast sums have been donated to cancer research, cystic fibrosis, homes for underprivileged children, and many other causes; and the Exemplar Fund, which helps to support Literacy Village in India.

Everglades Memorial Receives Accreditation

Everglades Memorial Hospital has been accredited by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals (JCAH) according to Fred Nalle, Jr., Administrator.

This accreditation, which began in February 1974 to February 1976, is the result of a complete survey made by field representatives of the Joint Commission's Hospital Accreditation Program (HAP). Accreditation indicates that this facility has chosen to operate according to standards set by JCAH and that the facility has, in the main, met these standards.

The standards, published as the Accreditation Manual for Hospitals, set forth optimal achievable goals of excellence against which a facility can measure itself and be measured by the Joint Commission's survey.

Everglades Memorial Hospital is one of approximately 4,900 general hospitals throughout the U.S. that have earned this recognition. There are approximately 5,600 general hospitals in the U.S.

The Joint Commission's accreditation surveys are voluntary. It is not legally necessary for a hospital to be accredited, but health care facilities have sought accreditation because it represents a benchmark of quality that is higher than governmental licensure alone.

The chief aim of the Hospital Accreditation Program, one of four such programs under the JCAH umbrella, is to help hospitals in their pursuit of excellence and thereby provide a higher quality of care to patients.

The program also seeks to recognize, and to identify for the public, those facilities which meet its standards.

The Joint Commission began in 1918 under the auspices of the American College of Surgeons. It was incorporated in 1961 with the support of its present member organizations: the American College of Surgeons, the American College of Physicians, the American Hospital Association, and the American Medical Association.

JCAH is a Chicago-based, non-governmental, not-for-profit organization. In addition to hospitals, it has programs for the accreditation of long term care facilities, psychiatric facilities, and facilities for the mentally retarded.

Poster Contest Begun

The Belle Glade Municipal Library is sponsoring a poster contest for fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth graders. This is a "Create A Poster by Doing Your Own Thing" contest.

The only rule is to make sure National Library Week, April 21-27, is mentioned. The winning poster will be hung in the library and the artist will receive a prize. Bring posters to the library before noon April 19.

Gladesview Elementary School is the honored school for April. This means that during April, students from Gladesview do not have to pay fines on overdue books, and if they have lost their library card they can get a new one free. Glades Day School has a student art display in the library for public viewing during the month of April.

Bike riding blues

Sure, bikes are great for fun and exercise, but in careless hands they can also cause serious injury. The Department of Health, Education and Welfare estimates that a million injuries result from bike accidents every year. An increasing number of them are caused by collisions with cars. But most of the spills, skids, crashes and other mishaps that trap riders in a tangle of wheels and handlebars are avoidable with proper precautions. Here are some pointers:

Be sure your bike is safety-equipped; proper reflectors and lights for night riding, slip-resistant pedals, comfortable adjustments, handlebars, proper grips, efficient brakes, a loud horn or bell. And wear clearly visible clothes when riding in traffic.

Know and obey the rules of the road. Ride single file. Obey traffic signals, stay in the right hand curb lane. Never ride against traffic. By all means, never weave in and out of traffic.

This information has been brought to you as a public service by your local insurance professionals—the insurance agency that cares. MILTON CARPENTER INSURANCE INC., 141 S.E. Avenue C, Belle Glade, Florida 396-7211. Associates Thomas B. Rumlitt and Paul Koryna.

Phone Company Toured

Mu Upsilon members met at the Southern Bell Telephone office on S.W. 1 Street where switchman James Henderson led them on a tour of the central office.

Henderson explained how a customer's phone is wired, using the local step by step switching equipment. The girls also saw the phone company's self-contained power system mobile phone units and toll facilities.

Then Mrs. Laverne Miller led a tour through the traffic department to explain how calls are answered by telephone operators, how long distance calls are times, and how many ways operators can assist a customer.

Members then reconvened at the home of sponsor, Mrs. Dot Averill. After a short business meeting, ballots were cast to elect next year's officers.

Carol Zimpl was elected president; Bonnie Blitch, vice president; Patsy Varnell, treasurer; Mary Dexter, recording secretary; Donna Schoenfeld, corresponding secretary; Rhonda Stokes, extension officer; Aritha Kewen, city council representative and Duane Bailey, city council alternate.

Mrs. Averill served lime sherbert and pound cake to the membership.

CARPET CARE

Carpet is an extraordinarily good value, because, needing no wax, they cost less to maintain than floors.

In view of this, they deserve the red carpet treatment when it comes to care.

Maintaining them properly helps them to retain their thermal, acoustical and psychological benefits. Few are some hints about carpet care gathered from two booklets on the subject from Monastex Textiles Company, one of very few companies making this free literature available.

1. Soak up as much of the staining material as possible with a towel.

2. Never rub a spot. This will only spread the stain and distort the pile.

3. Before using any cleaning agent, try a small amount on an inconspicuous corner of the carpet.

4. Always start from the edge of a spot and work toward the center.

5. Apply a small amount of cleaning agent to the spot and remove the discolored stain with a clean white towel.

6. Repeat the above procedure until the stain has disappeared and place clean towels or absorbent tissue with weights on the spot until it is dry.

These are only a few of the basic procedures that should be followed in attempting to remove a stain regardless of its type. If unsure, or in doubt, always call professionals. They have special equipment and many years of experience.

If you want further, detailed information, you can obtain free copies of either booklets, "How to Care for Your Carpet of Acrylic Fibers" and "How to Make Lighter Work of Housekeeping with Your Carpet of Cadon nylon," by writing to Monastex, Department of JPB 211, 1114 Avenue of the Americas, New York, N.Y. 10036.
